NOTES

Estimates of Population—This issue of Part I of the Statistical Register of Western Australia contains a new series of population estimates for dates and periods between the Censuses of 30th June, 1961 and 30th June, 1966.

These new intercensal estimates, which are based on the preliminary results of the 1966 Census, replace any previously published and are subject to revision when the final results of the 1966 Census become available.

Population of States and Territories—The method used in preparing the new series of population estimates will be used in preparing future population estimates at quarterly dates subsequent to the Census of 30th June, 1966. In this method the estimated population for each State (or Territory) represents the population ascertained at the Census plus recorded natural increase and recorded net gain from overseas migration for that State; gains and corresponding losses that result from movements between States are also taken into account in so far as they are recorded as transfers of State of residence under child endowment procedures or Commonwealth electoral procedures supplemented by results of any special count or sample survey. Holiday, business or other similar short-term movements between States are omitted. As records of interstate migration are not complete the estimated State populations so derived are approximate and are subject to revision when the actual population of each State is ascertained at the next Census.

This method represents a change from the former method of estimating State populations. These estimates were made by adding to the Census figures the subsequent natural increase and all net recorded overseas movement according to State of embarkation or disembarkation, as well as all net recorded movement by air, rail, sea and motor coach between States. The 1966 Census results confirmed that, despite very considerable efforts made to improve records of interstate movements, it is not possible to measure such movements with the desired accuracy. The new method, tested over the 1961-1966 intercensal period, appears to provide a more accurate result and has therefore been adopted for intercensal revision of the population and will continue to be used until the Census of 1971.

Further Sources of Information—For further information relating to population and vital statistics of the Australian States and Territories, the reader is referred to the publications issued by the Commonwealth Statistician, Canberra, notably the annual bulletin Demography and the periodic Australian Demographic Review.

Population Census, 30th June, 1966—Some preliminary results of the Population Census taken on the 30th June, 1966 are given in Tables 45–49.

Adjustment of Figures—In this issue of Part I of the Statistical Register of Western Australia all population estimates and rates of birth, death and marriage for dates and periods subsequent to the 30th June, 1961 have been adjusted in accordance with the preliminary results of the 1966 Census

Statistical Divisions—The Statistical Divisions and their component local government areas referred to in this publication are shown on a map contained in Part V of the Statistical Register of Western Australia.

Aboriginal Population—In accordance with the requirements of the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act (as provided by section 127, now repealed in terms of the Constitution Alteration (Aboriginals) Act of 1967), full-blood Aborigines are excluded from all population and vital statistics appearing in this publication. For Census purposes a full-blood Aboriginal is defined as a person who describes himself as having more than one-half aboriginal blood.

No. 17—Causes of Death: 1965

Statistics of causes of death in Australia from 1958 are based on the Detailed List of the 1955 Revision of the International List of Diseases and Causes of Death. Certain categories have been grouped to facilitate publication, but in all cases the detail required for the Intermediate List of 150 Causes has been preserved, in accordance with World Health Organization Regulations. In general three-digit categories are used, but some four-digit sub-categories have been included to meet Australian requirements.

SECTION 5—POPULATION CENSUS : 30th JUNE, 1966

The tables in this section contain some preliminary results of the Population Census taken on the 30th June, 1966. The figures were compiled during the taking of the Census by field personnel and are subject to amendment.

Estimates of population for dates and periods subsequent to the Census of the 30th June, 1961 have been revised in accordance with these preliminary results and will be further revised when the final results become available. See also note Estimates of Population on page 2.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

For the purpose of presenting statistics obtained at the Census of 30th June, 1966, new methods have been used in the delimitation of metropolitan areas and certain other urban centres. Briefly, these are as follows :

(i) Around each capital city and each town with a population of 75,000 or more two boundaries have been drawn.

The outer boundary, which is fixed, circumscribes the area in close economic and social contact with the main city or town. These areas are designated Statistical Divisions (for State capital cities) or Statistical Districts (for Canberra and some other cities).

The inner boundary indicates the area within which, at the time of the Census, there was a density of at least 500 persons per square mile. This density is determined for each Census collector's district (the smallest geographical area available). From Census to Census as urbanization proceeds this inner boundary will move outwards to encompass peripheral development. Some specified areas of lower density (e.g., industrial areas) are classified as urban on other grounds.

(ii) The principal urban centre within each Capital City Statistical Division has been designated the " Metropolitan Area."

(iii) Population clusters of 1,000 or more persons having a minimum density of 500 persons per square mile have been designated " Urban Centres."

In determining the outer boundary of each Capital City Statistical Division the aim has been to delimit, for at least two or three decades, the region expected to be in close contact with the inner urban area, after making allowances for further urban development, including satellite towns, improvements in transport, and other factors. The Perth Statistical Division comprises the area formed by amalgamation of the former Metropolitan and Swan Statistical Divisions.

A detailed statement of the concepts and criteria adopted in the delimitation of metropolitan areas and other urban centres is contained in Field Count Statement No. 4—Population : Principal Urban Centres of Australia published November, 1966 by the Commonwealth Statistician, Canberra.

As the processing of the Census schedules progresses, the Commonwealth Statistician, Canberra issues a large number of publications dealing with a wide range of characteristics of population and dwellings in each State and Territory and in each local government area within States. In addition, an analysis of similar characteristics for each Census collector's district is prepared. These tabulations are available for reference in each State capital city and extracts can be provided at a nominal charge.

For the 1966 Census operations, Western Australia was divided into 1,394 collectors' districts, of which 727 were in the Perth Statistical Division. Outline maps, generally at a scale of 1 : 25000, showing the boundaries of local government areas and component collectors' districts in the Division are available from this Office. Maps showing the boundaries of collectors' districts throughout the State are also available for reference.

Rounding of Figures—Many of the figures appearing in the tables have been rounded (to thousands or, in some cases, millions), without making those adjustments which would be needed to make the rounded figures add to the rounded total. It is for this reason that figures do not always add to the totals shown in the tables.

No. 3—Consolidated Revenue Fund : Revenue and Expenditure classified according to Function

NOTE—This table is designed to show (in respect of the Consolidated Revenue Fund only) the gross and net cost of each function of Government irrespective of the Department or Departments administering these functions. In cases where an activity is such that it involves more than one function, each of its components has been included in that function which is considered to be the most appropriate. For example, in classifying expenditure attributable to child welfare, the custody and care of delinquent children is included under " Law, Order and Public Safety " and the education of children in institutions under " Education ", only the balance being assigned to the item " Welfare ".

Certain functions are performed by semi-government authorities and do not affect the Revenue Fund with the exception of Public Debt operations and various subsidies and recoups, e.g., Electricity, Banking, Insurance, Roads. In other cases the Revenue Fund recoups certain losses or receives surplus profits from public enterprises. Public Debt Charges are shown as a separate function.

No. 14—Summary of Commonwealth Government Net Taxation Collections in Western Australia

NOTE—The figures in this table represent the amounts collected in Western Australia but do not necessarily indicate the amount contributed by the people of the State, as moneys may be collected in one State in respect of goods consumed in, or assessments made on account of, other States. Further, administrative arrangements for the collection of certain taxes are such that a large proportion of the revenue (or, as in the case of Wheat Tax, the whole of the revenue) is brought to account in a State other than Western Australia.

SECTION 5—TAXATION

No. 15—State Taxation : Net Collections

NOTE—Collections are grouped according to the nature of the tax rather than the method of collection. Thus stamp duties on betting tickets and revenue from bookmakers' licences and totalisator licences are included under the heading "Racing" and not under "Stamp Duties" or "Licences."

The figures shown comprise payments to Consolidated Revenue and trust or special accounts. They include earnings from some types of licences which are treated as departmental revenue, and not as taxation, in the Public Accounts. For purposes of comparison with other States, vehicle registration fees and passenger and carriers' licence fees collected by local government authorities outside the Metropolitan Traffic Area are also included. At the foot of the table there appears a reconciliation between the aggregate net collections for the year 1965-66 and the total of the item "Taxation" in Table 1.

ANALYSIS OF ASSESSMENTS UNDER THE COMMONWEALTH INCOME TAX AND SOCIAL SERVICES CONTRIBUTION ASSESSMENT ACTS

NOTE—Tables 18 to 21 inclusive have been compiled from information supplied in returns made to the Commissioner of Taxation. The information relates to assessments issued during a period of fifteen months, in the case of individuals, and eighteen months in the case of companies, after the close of the year of income.

The term "Central Office" appearing in some of the tables refers to the central office of the Taxation Department. Statistics of assessments issued by each State office and by the central office are compiled separately. Assessments issued by the Western Australian office cover taxpayers who derive income only in Western Australia, while those issued by the central office cover taxpayers who derive income (other than salary and wages and dividends) in more than one State and taxpayers whose income is derived wholly from sources outside Australia. In Table 18, particulars of central office taxpayers resident in Western Australia have been included. Tables 20 and 21, which relate to companies, include only those assessed in Western Australia.

"Actual Income" may be defined briefly as "gross income (including exempt income) less expenses incurred in gaining that income." ("Exempt income" includes war and service pensions, social services benefits, income from gold mining and certain income derived from overseas if the income is taxed in the country in which it is derived.)

"Taxable Income" is equal to Actual Income less Exempt Income and Allowable Deductions, the more important of which are described in the Western Australian Pocket Year Book.

SECTION 3—FIRE, MARINE AND GENERAL INSURANCE

NOTE—The tables in this section have been compiled from returns submitted by insurers transacting business in Western Australia.

The returns do not relate to a uniform period, the actual period varying according to the financial year of individual insurers.

(i) Premiums represent the full amount receivable in respect of policies issued or renewed during the year, less returns, rebates and bonuses paid or credited to policy holders during the year. They are not adjusted to provide for premiums unearned at the end of the year and consequently the amounts differ from "earned premium income" appropriate to the year. When figures are increasing, as in recent years, premiums receivable (as shown in the tables) are greater than "earned premium income" appropriate to the year. The converse applies when figures are declining.

(ii) Claims include provision for outstanding claims and represent claims or losses incurred during the year. Salvage and other amounts recoverable have been deducted.

(iii) Contributions to Fire Brigades, Commission, Agents' Charges and Expenses of Management represent mainly charges paid during the year.

(iv) Taxation represents mainly payments made during the year and includes Income Tax, Pay-roll Tax, Licence Fees, Stamp Duty (where paid by the company), etc. Income Tax paid during the year is based on the income of earlier years.

The tables contain selected items of statistics and the information shown is not suitable for the construction of a "Profit and Loss" statement or "Revenue Account."

SECTION 1 — INTERSTATE AND OVERSEAS TRADE

EXPLANATORY NOTES

Sources of Statistics. Overseas trade statistics are compiled from documents obtained under the Customs Act 1901–1968 and supplied to the Commonwealth Bureau of Census and Statistics by the Department of Customs and Excise. Particulars of Western Australia's overseas trade, as presented in this publication, have been prepared from data furnished by the Commonwealth Statistician, Canberra.

Statistics of Western Australia's trade with other Australian States are compiled by the Western Australian Office of the Bureau of Census and Statistics from information contained in documents collected under authority of the Census and Statistics Act 1905–1966 from importers, exporters, and other persons concerned with the distribution of goods.

Classification of Commodities. Overseas trade statistics for years up to and including 1964–65 were compiled according to a Statistical Classification of Imports and Exports which, in 1964–65, contained approximately 3,700 items of import and 1,300 items of export.

On 1 July 1965 a new Australian Customs Tariff was introduced. The nomenclature used in the Tariff is that of the Convention on Nomenclature for the Classification of Goods in Customs Tariffs, an international agreement signed at Brussels on 15 December 1950. The system of naming established by the Convention has come to be known as the ' Brussels Nomenclature '.

From 1 July 1965, imports into Australia have been classified according to an Australian Import Commodity Classification of some 5,000 items based on the United Nations Standard International Trade Classification, Revised, which closely follows the Brussels tariff nomenclature.

A new Australian Export Commodity Classification of some 2,000 items, also based on the Standard International Trade Classification, was introduced on 1 July 1966.

The Standard International Trade Classification consists of 10 broad commodity categories designated ' Sections ' and comprising 56 commodity ' Divisions ' which are further divided into 177 commodity ' Groups '. The structure of the classification serves to provide a summary of data relating to 1,312 basic items of international trade.

For the purpose of recording details of Western Australia's trade with other Australian States, a revised Interstate Trade Classification based on the new Australian Commodity Classifications has been prepared in the Western Australian Office of the Bureau. In compiling this document, the basic items of the Australian Classifications have been compressed or expanded, according to their significance in Western Australia's trade. The Interstate Trade Classification comprises some 860 items of import and 370 items of export within the structure of commodity Sections, Divisions and Groups referred to previously. The revised Interstate Trade Classification was first used in compiling details of Western Australia's trade with other Australian States in respect of the year 1965–66.

The commodity descriptions appearing in some of the tables which follow are, in some cases, abbreviations of the full text, which is available in the Australian Import Commodity Classification and the Australian Export Commodity Classification.

Tables 7 and 8. The numbering system used in Tables 7 and 8 comprises up to seven digits. The first digit denotes the Section, the first two digits the Division, and the first three digits the Group. These are the Sections, Divisions and Groups of the Standard International Trade Classification. The fourth and fifth digits serve to identify the statistical item in the Interstate Trade Classification. In the case of overseas trade, the seven digits which are used to denote the statistical item correspond to those used by the Commonwealth Statistician in the publication Overseas Trade, 1967–68 : Bulletin No. 65. For presentation in Tables 7 and 8 the detailed statistics contained in the bulletin have been condensed by combining some items of overseas trade under a single reference number. In some instances the sign † appears in place of the seventh digit, indicating that the particulars shown against that number refer to a combination of items which have reference numbers with common digits up to the sixth. Similarly, the sign †† appearing in place of the sixth and seventh digits indicates a combination of items having reference numbers with the first five digits in common. A dash (—) appearing in the Reference Number column indicates that the figures shown relate to a collection of heterogeneous items of overseas trade for which there is no appropriate single reference number (or group of numbers).

Where the value of imports from, or exports to, a country in 1967–68 was less than $1,000 for a particular item, the country is not listed separately, and the value concerned is included in the figures shown against ' Other '.

Although the information presented in Tables 7 and 8 is confined to the year 1967–68, comparable data for imports during 1965–66 and 1966–67 and exports during 1966–67 are available on request from records held in the Western Australian Office of the Bureau.

Detailed particulars of overseas imports and exports for each of the Australian States, and for Australia as a whole, are available in the bulletin Overseas Trade, published annually by the Commonwealth Statistician, Canberra.

Tables 12 and 13. The numbering system used in Tables 12 and 13 comprises up to five digits. The first digit denotes the Section, the first two digits the Division, and the first three digits the Group. These are the Sections, Divisions and Groups of the Standard International Trade Classification. The fourth and fifth digits serve to identify the statistical item in the Interstate Trade Classification. In some cases the sign † appears in place of the fifth digit, indicating that the particulars shown against that number refer to a combination of items which have reference numbers with common digits up to the fourth. Similarly, the sign †† appearing in place of the fourth and fifth digits indicates a combination of items having reference numbers with the first three digits in common. A dash (—) appearing in the Reference Number column indicates that the figures shown relate to a collection of heterogeneous items for which there is no appropriate single reference number (or group of numbers).

Additional information relating to Western Australia's trade with other Australian States appears in the mimeographed publication Interstate Trade of Western Australia, issued annually by the Western Australian Office of the Bureau.

In tabulating particulars of Western Australia's interstate trade, statistics relating to trade with the Australian Capital Territory are included with those of New South Wales.

Index to Articles of Trade. The index appearing in pages 8 to 17 is specifically designed to cover the detailed items contained in Tables 7 and 8 but the five digit interstate reference numbers shown against these items are in most cases applicable to like commodities appearing in Tables 12 and 13.

Units of Quantity. Quantities are generally, but not invariably, expressed in terms of the normal trade unit. Where cental is used, the unit is equivalent to 100 lb avoirdupois. Gallon refers to the imperial gallon of 277¼ cubic inches capacity.

Quantities are not given in cases where there is no appropriate common unit (for example, an item, or a Section such as Section 7—Machinery and transport equipment, which covers a number of disparate commodities and cannot be recorded under a uniform unit of quantity).

Valuation of Items of Trade. All values are recorded in Australian currency. The basis of valuation used, except in the case of imports from other Australian States, is f.o.b., or its equivalent, at the port of shipment. Statistics of imports from other Australian States are recorded in terms of landed cost.

Direction of Trade. The term Country of Origin, as used in recording statistics of overseas trade, means the country of production ; Country of Destination means the country to which goods were consigned at the time of export. In compiling statistics of Western Australia's interstate imports and exports, goods are classified according to the State or Territory from which or to which they were consigned.

Reimports. Goods classified as reimports consist of articles exported from Australia and subsequently reimported into Western Australia. The country of origin, in these cases, is shown as Australia (reimported).

For Orders. Where the country of destination is not determined at the time of consignment the goods are recorded as exported ' For Orders '.

Geographic Trade Areas. The geographic trade areas shown in the tables are based on the Classification of Geographic Trade Areas for Shipping Statistics used by the Commonwealth Statistician, Canberra in recording overseas shipping cargoes. Geographic trade areas, as detailed in Tables 2 and 3, comprise only those countries with which Western Australia engaged in trade during the three-year period ended 30 June 1968.

Ships' Stores. The term Ships' Stores comprises stores loaded on board ships and aircraft and includes bunker coal and oil. Export figures exclude the value of ships' stores, details of which are supplied separately in Table 9, page 156.

Rounding of Figures. Values have been rounded to thousands without making those adjustments which would be needed to make the rounded figures add to the rounded totals. It is for this reason that figures do not always add to the totals shown in the tables.

Abbreviations and Symbols

'n.e.i.' denotes 'not elsewhere included'.

China, Rep. of (Formosa) refers to the Republic of China (Formosa).

Germany, Fed. Rep. of refers to the Federal Republic of Germany.

U.S.S.R. refers to the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

The symbol .. in the Quantity column indicates that the quantity recorded was less than half the unit of quantity shown.

(b) The six countries selected represent those with the largest aggregates for the two years shown, with the exception of China (mainland) which, since it dealt mainly in one commodity (see Table 16), was not shown separately in this table. (c) Less than $500. (d) Includes an amount of $61·28 million, representing exports of wheat to China (mainland) valued at $46·10 million; and to Pakistan, $15·18 million. (e) Includes an amount of $61·55 million representing exports of wheat to China (mainland).

SECTION 2 — TRANSPORT

SHIPPING

Sources of Statistics. On arrival at, or departure from a port in Australia, whether from or for an overseas country or from or for another port in Australia, the master or agent must ' enter ' the vessel with the Customs authorities at the port, and supply certain prescribed information in regard to the ship and its cargo. At the end of each month the Department of Customs and Excise sends to the Commonwealth Bureau of Census and Statistics a return of information so obtained. Tables 23-8 and 30-5 have been prepared from tabulations compiled from these returns.

The information in Tables 29 and 36-9 has been obtained from data supplied by the Fremantle Port Authority ; the Albany Port Authority ; the Bunbury Port Authority ; the Harbour and Light Department ; and by private operators in respect of the ports at Yampi, Dampier and Exmouth and the buoyed sea terminal at Barrow Island.

Statistics of cargo handled obtained from these two sources are not strictly comparable for the reason mentioned under Tonnage of Cargo below.

Classification of Vessels. In Tables 23-6 and 30-1 vessels are classified to three groups : liner services ; tramps and bulkships ; and tankers.

A liner service specifically relates to a vessel which, on the voyage on which cargo is loaded or discharged at a Western Australian port, is operated by a common carrier in providing services on a specified route on a relatively regular basis. Liner services include both passenger and cargo liners. The term tramp refers to freight-vessels not operating on a regular route.

Country of Loading or Discharge. Ports at which vessels load or discharge cargo are allocated to their respective countries and these are the countries of loading or discharge of cargo shown in Tables 32-5. Each country is classified to a geographic trade area in accordance with the Classification of Geographic Trade Areas for Shipping Statistics used by the Commonwealth Statistician, Canberra.

The countries shown are not necessarily the countries of origin or ultimate destination of cargo because previous or subsequent overseas transhipments are not taken into account. The statistics of cargo classified according to the country in which it was loaded or discharged cannot therefore be compared directly with statistics of overseas trade classified by country of origin or destination. In Australian import statistics, Country of Origin refers to the country in which the goods imported were produced. In Australian export statistics, Country of Destination refers to the country of final destination of goods at the time of export and not to any country in which they may be transhipped en route. For example, where the United Kingdom is the country of final destination but the goods exported are transhipped at a Netherlands port, export statistics would show them as exports to the United Kingdom whereas in shipping cargo statistics they would be shown as cargo loaded for discharge in the Netherlands.

Cargo loaded for 'optional ports' (i.e. consignments of cargo for discharge at one of a specified range of ports, the particular port being nominated by the shipper during the voyage) is classified to the country in which the ports are situated when they are all within one country. If the range of port options extends beyond one country, the cargo is allocated to the category ' optional ports ' within the relevant geographic trade area.

In the case of a vessel without cargo (i.e. 'in ballast ') sailing to or from Australia (or between Australian ports) the country or port referred to is that in which the voyage commenced or terminated.

Tonnage of Vessels. The gross tonnage and net tonnage of a vessel are measures of its carrying capacity, one ton being equal to 100 cubic feet. The gross tonnage, as used in Tables 37-9, represents the total volume of a vessel's enclosed space. The net tonnage, as used in Tables 23–8, represents the volume of enclosed space that can be used for cargo and passengers.

Tonnage of Cargo. Most cargoes are recorded in terms of the ton weight of 2,240 lb, but some cargo, consisting mainly of bulky commodities, is recorded on the basis of the ton measurement, a unit equivalent to 40 cubic feet of space. Statistics are compiled accordingly in terms of ' tons weight ' or ' tons measurement '.

The tonnages recorded in the two categories have been aggregated in Tables 36–9 in order to provide a ready comparison of the volume of cargo handled at the several ports or in different periods. In Tables 29–35 details of cargo handled are presented separately on the basis of ' tons weight ' and ' tons measurement '.

The tonnages appearing in Tables 30–5, which are actual tonnages as recorded on ships' manifests, cannot be reconciled with those shown in Tables 29 and 36–9 because a port authority, for the purpose of calculating cargo handling charges, may classify items of cargo, as between ' tons weight ' and ' tons measurement ', in a manner different from that shown on the ship's manifest.

General. The information published in Tables 23–8 for 1966–67 and 1967–68 is not available on a strictly comparable basis for 1965–66 which is therefore not presented in the tables. Some data for 1965–66 is, however, held in the records of the Western Australian Office of the Bureau of Census and Statistics and is available on request.

The Traffic Act provides for the registration of motor vehicles throughout the State, but those owned by the Commonwealth Government are not required to be licensed under the Act. Particulars of Commonwealth Government-owned vehicles (excluding those of the defence services) listed with the Commonwealth Motor Vehicle Registry, Canberra are shown in footnote (f) to Table 53.

In Western Australia there is no single authority responsible for the licensing of motor vehicles. The Traffic Branch of the Police Department issues licences in the Metropolitan Traffic Area (see below) and other areas as prescribed. Outside these areas each Town Council or Shire Council is responsible for the licensing of vehicles in its own district. Statistics are compiled from the records of each licensing authority.

The Metropolitan Traffic Area refers to the area as defined in Regulations made under the Traffic Act. From 1 October 1966 the boundary of the area was extended to include the whole of the Shire of Armadale-Kelmscott instead of, as formerly, only part of the Shire. The local government areas which comprised the Metropolitan Traffic Area at 30 June 1968 are shown below. Cities are marked (C) and Towns (T) ; all other local government areas listed are Shires.

NOTES ON STATISTICS OF AGRICULTURE AND LIVESTOCK

SOURCES OF INFORMATION

1. The statistics relating to agriculture and livestock, as published in this Part of the Statistical Register, are, in the main, compiled from statutory returns supplied annually at 31 March by occupiers of rural holdings in Western Australia.

2. Additional information is obtained from entirely separate collections covering slaughtering and bee keeping and from various authorities.

PERIOD COVERED

1. Data relating to area sown, production, yield per acre and number of holdings growing crops are, in general, for the season ended 31 March. In cases where harvesting has not been completed by 31 March (e.g., potatoes, apples, pears) total production, including quantities harvested after 31 March, is recorded. A seasonal calendar showing approximate times of sowing or planting, harvesting, lambing and shearing appears on page 8 of this Part.

2. Livestock numbers are as at 31 March and livestock products are, in general, for the year ended 31 March. Slaughterings are for the year ended 30 June.

3. Statistics of bee keeping relate to hives and production for year the ended 30 June.

4. Particulars of farm machinery are as at 31 March.

DEFINITIONS AND EXPLANATORY NOTES

1. Rural Holdings—For statistical purposes a " rural holding " is defined as a piece of land of one acre or more in extent, used for the production of agricultural products (including fruit and vegetables, nursery plants, etc.) or for the raising of livestock (including poultry) and the production of livestock products. Holdings of less than one acre on which commercial market gardens, nurseries, poultry farms or hatcheries are operated are also included.

An occupier who works more than one holding is generally required to supply a separate annual return for each holding, particularly if the holdings are situated in different local government areas. If, however, the holdings are not far apart and are worked as one, the occupier may (and in most instances does) supply a single composite return covering the holdings concerned. The holdings covered by a composite return are treated, for statistical purposes, as forming a single rural holding. Where a holding extends into two or more local government areas, the holding and all operations on it are attributed to the local government area in which the homestead is located.

2. Area of Crops—The total area of land sown or planted to crops is shown irrespective of whether the whole area was harvested or whether a portion or the whole of the crop failed and was not harvested. In the case of fruit and vegetables, only commercial areas are included.

Where two successive crops are grown on the same land during one season, the land is included twice in area of crops except in Tables 3 and 4 where it is counted once only in " Cleared Land Used for Crop."

No data on the area planted to individual types of orchard fruits are collected but estimates, based on the reported total orchard acreage and the number of trees of each variety planted, are made and are published in this Part.

3. Yield per Acre—Figures published in this Part relate to yield per acre sown or planted. Acreages of crops harvested are not recorded and consequently particulars of yields per acre harvested are not available. In the case of apples, pears and oranges yields are shown in terms of " per acre of bearing trees."

4. Population of Rural Holdings—Persons of all ages residing on rural holdings at 31 March are recorded, including those temporarily absent but excluding guests and visitors.

5. Employment on Rural Holdings—Details are collected in the general farm census of persons working on rural holdings at 31 March. Persons working permanently full-time exclude casual or seasonal workers, females engaged principally in domestic duties, children attending school and other persons who work only part-time.

Attention is drawn to the difficulty encountered in compiling data on a comparable basis, from year to year, of persons employed. The difficulty applies particularly to females and arises because of the tendency of many farmers to include part-time family helpers in their returns as full-time workers. It is necessary in compiling the returns to exclude a considerable number of these workers and, while all possible care is taken in doing this, it is difficult to ensure that the treatment is consistent from year to year. For this reason no information on female employment is published in this Part.

6. Livestock Slaughtered—Monthly returns are collected from principal slaughterers (abattoirs, meat works and bacon factories) and these, together with annual returns from all other slaughterers (a special return from country butchers and the general census return from farmers and pastoralists) provide the necessary data for compiling estimates of all livestock slaughtered.

7. Cattle—Following an investigation into the adequacy of the wording and arrangement of the cattle sections of the forms used in collecting agricultural and pastoral statistics, certain changes have been made in the classification of cattle as at 31 March in 1964 and later years.

Prior to 1964, informants were asked to classify their stock as either " beef cattle " or " dairy cattle ". These two terms tended to cause confusion between breed and purpose. For example, in cases where vealer production was carried on in association with dairying the informant was in doubt as to how to classify part or all of the herd. From 1964, informants have been asked to classify cattle according to the two main purposes of " meat production " and " milk production ", irrespective of breed, and to report separately the numbers of cows and heifers kept for their own domestic milk supply. Consequently, detailed statistics of cattle for 1964 and later are not comparable with those for earlier years.

8. Bee Keeping—In compiling bee-keeping statistics from 1957–58, returns have been collected only from apiarists with five or more hives whereas in previous years all apiarists were included. As bee keepers with less than five hives account for a very small proportion of the total number of hives and of production, comparability with previous years is not materially affected.

9. Bushel Weights—The production of cereals, fruit and certain other commodities is generally recorded in bushels. While the weight of a bushel varies according to the nature of the product, it is also subject to considerable variation on account of such factors as method of packing and size and variety within each kind of product. The average bushel equivalent weights set out below may be used to convert production to pounds weight avoirdupois.

Product	Weight per bushel	Product	Weight per bushel	Product	Weight per bushel
	lb		lb		lb
Apples	42	Lemons	48	Peaches	45
Apricots	48	Loquats	45	Pears	45

10. Conversion Factors—The production of vegetables has been shown in reported units. The average unit equivalent weights set out below may be used to convert production to pounds weight avoirdupois.

STATISTICAL DIVISIONS AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT AREAS

1. From 1929–30 Western Australian statistics of agriculture and livestock have been tabulated according to Local Government Areas. In this Part in the tables where information for separate Local Government Areas is published, the district designations and names used are those which were current at 31 March 1966.

The only change during 1965–66 occurred on 10 September 1965 when the name of the Shire of Trayning-Kununoppin-Yelbeni was altered to the Shire of Trayning.

A change also occurred in Statistical Divisions, the Perth Statistical Division being constituted with effect from 1 January 1966 by amalgamation of the former Metropolitan and Swan Statistical Divisions.

3. Data relating to agriculture and livestock in Towns outside the Perth Statistical Division are combined with those for the surrounding or adjacent Shire (except in the case of the Town of Bunbury, for which separate figures are shown). Thus particulars for the Towns of Albany, Narrogin and Northam are included with those for the Shires of the same name, those for the Town of Geraldton with the Shire of Greenough, and for the Towns of Kalgoorlie and Boulder with the Shire of Kalgoorlie. Separate statistics of agriculture and livestock are not compiled for the individual local government areas which comprised the former Metropolitan Statistical Division. Totals for these areas which comprise the Cities of Fremantle, Nedlands, Perth, South Perth and Subiaco ; the Towns of Claremont, Cottesloe, East Fremantle, Melville, Midland and Mosman Park ; and the Shires of Bassendean, Bayswater, Belmont, Canning, Peppermint Grove and Perth ; are shown under " Other Districts " in the Perth Statistical Division. Figures for the Shire of Swan-Guildford now include details for the South Ward and Guildford Ward which previously were included in the Metropolitan Statistical Division. Separate statistics for the Shires of Carnarvon and Exmouth are not available for publication.

4. The areas of local government districts at 30 June 1966 are shown in Table 3 on pages 10 to 13. Official estimates of areas, usually shown in square miles, have been converted to acres for comparison with the statistics of rural land utilisation which are shown in the table. Transfers of land between districts during the year ended 30 June 1966, taken into account in calculating the areas shown, are listed below. Transfers affecting farms and stations which took place prior to 31 March 1966 have been taken into account in compiling the district data published in this Part.

TYPE AND SIZE CLASSIFICATION OF RURAL HOLDINGS, SEASON 1959–60

Special tabulations relating to the classification of rural holdings by type of farming activity and size of principal activities are published in a bulletin, issued by the Commonwealth Statistician, which is available for reference at the Office of the Deputy Commonwealth Statistician for Western Australia.

SEASONAL CALENDAR

The following calendar is intended to show the main periods when principal agricultural and pastoral activities are carried out in Western Australia. Operations are generally confined to the periods shown but are subject to variation according to such factors as geographical location within the State, the variety of seed sown (or trees and vines planted) and exceptional seasonal conditions.

SECTION 8—VALUE OF PRODUCTION

I. PRIMARY PRODUCTION

(a) Gross Value is the value placed on recorded production at the wholesale price realised at the principal market. In cases where primary products are consumed at the place of production or where they become raw material for a secondary industry, these points of consumption are taken as the principal markets.

(b) Marketing Costs comprise freight, cost of containers, commission, and other charges incurred in marketing.

(c) Local Value is the value recorded at the place of production, and is obtained by deducting Marketing Costs from Gross Value.

(d) Cost of Goods Consumed in the Process of Production covers seed and fertilisers used, pickling, sprays, dips, fodder consumed, fuel and oil, and other selected costs of a similar nature.

(e) Net Value represents the return to the producer (farmer, pastoralist, mine owner, etc.) and is the sum available for payment of wages, interest, rent, depreciation, other overhead costs, and for the producer's own income. It is obtained by deducting from Local Value the Cost of Goods Consumed in the Process of Production.

Gross and Local Values of primary production involve some duplication as they include the products of certain primary industries which are consumed as raw materials by other industries in the group (e.g., hay consumed by livestock). Furthermore, many of the materials consumed by primary industries are the products of secondary industry. However, duplication has been eliminated in calculating the Net Value of primary production by deducting the cost of both primary and secondary products consumed by primary industries. Therefore, Net Value of primary production should be used when comparing or combining values for primary industries with those for secondary industries.

II. MANUFACTURING

(a) Value of Output is the selling value "at the factory" (i.e., the value at the point of sale less all selling and distribution costs) of all goods made or processed during the year and includes the amount received for other work done, such as repair work, assembling and making-up for customers. Any bounty or subsidy received on finished products is included.

(b) Cost of Goods Consumed in the Process of Production covers materials used, fuel, power and light, lubricating oil and water, repairs to plant and buildings, tools replaced, and containers and materials used for packing.

(c) Net Value of Production is the value added in the course of manufacture and is the sum available for payment of wages, rent, depreciation, other sundry expenses and for interest and profit. It is obtained by deducting from the Value of Output the Cost of Goods Consumed in the Process of Production.

In the process of manufacture, the output of one factory may become the raw material of another and aggregations of values of factory output therefore involve considerable duplication. However, in arriving at Net Value of production, i.e., value added by the process of manufacture, no duplication occurs as the value added by each factory is taken into account once only. Because of this, and as much of the output of primary industry becomes raw material of secondary industries, Net Value of factory production (as defined above) should be used when comparing or combining values for secondary industries with those for primary industries.

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND DEFINITIONS

Definition of Factory—For statistical purposes a factory is defined as any establishment which is engaged in the processes of manufacturing, assembling, treating or repairing and in which four or more persons are employed during any period of the year, or power other than manual is used.

Classification—In the case of a factory which engages in more than one industry on the same site a separate return is obtained, where possible, for each industry. Each of these components is then classified as if it were a separate factory. However, where it is not practicable for the manufacturer to submit separate returns, the factory is classified to the predominant activity, e.g., a factory principally engaged in manufacturing Ice but also producing Aerated Waters and Cordials would be classified to Ice and Refrigeration if separate returns were not available.

Confidential Information—The Acts under which these statistics are collected require that information supplied on any individual return must be treated as confidential. For this reason it has not been possible to publish some items and in other cases it has been necessary to combine details for publication. As these confidential provisions apply throughout Australia, separate details have been withheld in some instances in order to prevent disclosure of confidential information in respect of individual States. The tables affected carry appropriate footnotes.

Employment—Figures relate to the factory proper and exclude persons engaged in obtaining raw materials (e.g., persons employed by sawmills in felling and hauling logs) and persons engaged in selling or distribution. Working proprietors are included unless otherwise stated.

Average employment figures may be expressed as an average " over the period worked " or as an average " over the whole year". Thus a factory which operates for only six months of the year and employs 20 persons throughout that period has an average employment of 20 " over the period worked", but an average of only 10 " over the whole year". The type of average is indicated in each table.

Value of Output—The value of output is the selling value " at the factory " (i.e., the value at the point of sale less all selling and distribution costs) of all goods made or processed during the year and includes the amount received for other work done, such as repair work, assembling and making-up for customers. Any bounty or subsidy received on finished products is included.

Net Production—" Net Production " is the value added in the course of manufacture and is the sum available for payment of wages, rent, depreciation, other sundry expenses and for interest and profit. It is obtained by deducting from the value of output the cost of goods consumed in the process of production. The costs deducted are those of materials used, fuel, power and light, lubricating oil and water, repairs to plant and buildings, tools replaced, and containers and materials used for packing.

In the process of manufacture, the output of one factory may become the raw material of another and aggregations of values of factory output therefore involve considerable duplication. However, in arriving at Value of " Net Production", i.e., value added by the process of manufacture, no duplication occurs as the value added by each factory is taken into account once only.

Land and Buildings, Plant and Machinery—Values shown represent depreciated or book values at end of each period and include estimated values in cases where premises and plant and machinery are rented by the occupier.

Local Government Areas—The district designations and names used are those which were current at 30 June 1966.

The only change during 1965–66 occurred on 10 September 1965 when the name of the Shire of Trayning-Kununoppin-Yelbeni was altered to the Shire of Trayning.

Statistical Divisions—A change occurred in Statistical Divisions, the Perth Statistical Division being constituted with effect from 1 January 1966 by amalgamation of the former Metropolitan and Swan Statistical Divisions. A map showing Statistical Divisions and their component Local Government Areas appears in Part V of the Statistical Register of Western Australia, the Abstract of Statistics of Local Government Areas, and the Western Australian Year Book.

Rounding of Figures—Monetary amounts appearing in Tables 56–57 and 60–62 have been rounded to thousands of dollars without making those adjustments which would be needed to make the rounded figures add to the rounded total. It is for this reason that figures do not always add to the totals shown in the tables.

Percentages appearing in Table 10 have been calculated to the second place of decimals without making any adjustment which would be necessary to make the percentages so expressed add to precisely 100.

(a) Excludes Working Proprietors. (b) It should be noted that there is a break in the continuity of the index-number series between June and July 1935, owing to the inclusion, from July 1935 onwards, of certain factories previously not included. This tends to exaggerate the degree of recovery.

(a) The latest wage rates shown in this table are those which applied before a decision of The Western Australian Industrial Commission dated 27 June 1967. The terms of this decision were that the minimum weekly wage payable to adult male workers under certain awards be increased from $36.55 to $37.55 ; " that the wage rates for adult workers not in receipt of the ' minimum wage ' be increased by 60 cents per week ; and that other wage rates be adjusted as if the basic wage for males and the basic wage for females had been increased by that amount ". These increases were declared to operate from the beginning of the first pay-period commencing on or after 1 July 1967. (b) Defined as the area comprised within a radius of 15 miles from the General Post Office, Perth. (c) As defined in the Land Act but excluding the Metropolitan Area. (d) The first State Basic Wage operated from 1 July 1926. (e) On 22 September 1964 The Western Australian Industrial Commission, after a comprehensive inquiry, declared rates of $30.80 for males and $23.10 for females to apply uniformly throughout the State. Subsequent variations continued to be made on this basis.

(a) Comprises gold refined at the Mint and gold contained in gold-bearing materials exported. Figures for individual years do not agree with mine production, quoted in Tables 1, 3, 4 and 5, because of the delay between production at the mine and refining at the Mint. (b) Figures do not in all cases add to the totals shown owing to rounding to the nearest fine ounce. (c) Comprises gold in ores and concentrates exported. (d) Subsidy operative from 1955. (e) From 1890 to 31 December 1965.

NOTES

(i) Local Government Legislation—The Local Government Act of 1960 repealed the Municipal Corporations Act, 1906 and the Road Districts Act, 1919. Under the provisions of the repealed legislation, the financial year for Municipalities (now Cities and Towns in terms of the 1960 Act) ended on 31 October, and for Road Boards (now Shires) on 30 June. The Local Government Act prescribes a financial year ending on 30 June for all local government authorities. The Act came into operation on 1 July 1961, and the financial statistics for 1961–62 presented in Tables 10–12 therefore refer to the period of eight months ended 30 June 1962 in the case of Cities and Towns and to the year ended 30 June 1962 in the case of Shires.

An outline of the main financial and procedural changes resulting from the operation of the Local Government Act is given in the issue of Part XI—Local Government for 1961–62. A general description of the Local Government system appears in Chapter III—Constitution and Government of the Official Year Book of Western Australia, Nos. 3–5 and in Nos. 6 and 7 of the Western Australian Year Book.

(ii) Vermin Boards, Water Boards and Local Boards of Health—The Local Government Act prescribes a single General Rate in place of the several rates formerly levied for specific purposes, and the financial transactions of Vermin Boards (with some exceptions) and Local Boards of Health are now included in the composite Annual Statement of Receipts and Payments of the local government authority concerned. Nevertheless, it has been found administratively expedient for a small number of Vermin Boards and Water Boards to remain financially independent. Statistics relating to these Boards are presented separately in Table 9. The figures appearing in Tables 10–12 include the transactions of Vermin Boards and Water Boards and, prior to 1961–62, Local Boards of Health.

For detailed statistics of water supply, sewerage and drainage, the reader is referred to Part VII—Mineral Statistics and Water Conservation of the Statistical Register and to the Annual Reports of the Metropolitan Water Supply, Sewerage, and Drainage Board and the Department of Public Works and Water Supply.

(iii) Eastern Goldfields Transport Board—The Eastern Goldfields Transport Board operates an omnibus service in the Kalgoorlie-Boulder urban area, under an agreement with the Kalgoorlie and Boulder Town Councils and the Kalgoorlie Shire Council. Its financial transactions are not included in the figures shown in Tables 10–12 but are summarised in Table 15.

(iv) Statistical Divisions—The Statistical Divisions referred to in this publication comprise groups of complete and contiguous local government areas and are shown on a map appearing in Part V of the Statistical Register of Western Australia, the Abstract of Statistics of Local Government Areas and the Western Australian Year Book.

The Perth Statistical Division was constituted with effect from 1 January 1966 and comprises the area formed by amalgamation of the former Metropolitan and Swan Statistical Divisions.

In Tables 1–7, local government areas have been arranged alphabetically within each Statistical Division. To facilitate reference to the tables, an index list of local government areas as at 30 June 1966 is provided on page 41.

(v) Changes in Local Government Areas—

The only change during 1965–66 occurred on 10 September 1965 when the name of the Shire of Trayning-Kununoppin-Yelbeni was changed to the Shire of Trayning.

(a) In accordance with the requirements of the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act (as provided by section 127, now repealed in terms of the Constitution Alteration (Aboriginals) Act of 1967, operative from 10 August 1967), full-blood Aborigines (and dwellings occupied solely by them) are excluded from this table. For Census purposes, a full-blood Aboriginal is defined as a person with more than one-half aboriginal blood. (b) "Private" and "non-private" dwellings are included. For the purpose of the Census, an "occupied dwelling" is any habitation occupied by a household group living together as a domestic unit, whether comprising the whole of a building or only part of it. The term has therefore a very wide reference and includes, in addition to houses and flats, a great variety of dwellings ranging from a single-roomed shack to a multi-roomed hotel or institution. (c) The numbers shown for unoccupied dwellings do not represent vacant houses or flats available for sale or renting. They include week-end and holiday homes, seasonal workers' quarters and other dwellings which were not occupied on the night of the Census, as well as newly-completed dwellings whose owners or tenants had not entered into occupation. (d) See note (iv) on page 4. (e) See note (v) on page 4. (f) Includes "migratory" population. The migratory population comprises persons (both passengers and crew) who, at midnight on Census night, were enumerated on board ships in Western Australian ports, or ships which had left Australian ports before Census night for ports in Western Australia. It includes also those who were enumerated on long-distance trains, motor coaches or aircraft.

PART XII—RETAIL PRICES, WAGES, EMPLOYMENT AND MISCELLANEOUS

SECTION 1—RETAIL PRICES

Prices of a limited range of commodities are recorded in the Blue Books of Western Australia from the early years of settlement. It was not until 1911, however, that a systematic collection of retail prices statistics, undertaken by the Commonwealth Statistician, was begun. The results of this inquiry were published in 1912 and thus, for the first time, particulars of retail prices in a selection of Western Australian towns became available. As well as providing data for each of five principal towns for the year 1911, the published information contained particulars for the capital city for each year from 1901 to 1910, the scope of the investigation having been specially extended for this purpose. The 46 commodities included in the collection, in addition to house rent, comprised a representative range of groceries, dairy produce and meat. The field of collection was later expanded to cover other groups of household expenditure.

Prices are now collected regularly for items of food ; clothing and drapery ; housing ; household supplies and equipment ; and miscellaneous commodities and services.

Representative and reputable retailers and service establishments are selected for each class of commodity and each service. These informants furnish regular returns of prices. Whenever necessary, particulars of prices are also obtained from other firms. For food items, prices are collected monthly, as at the 15th of each month, and are averaged for the three months of the quarter. For most other items prices are obtained quarterly as at the 15th of the middle month of the quarter. In general, prices are collected from actual vendors at retail selling outlets. The prices are those actually being charged for normal cash purchases of new articles. " Bargain " or " sale " prices of imperfect goods or discontinued lines are not used.

The information is collected, under authority of the Census and Statistics Act 1905–1966, for specified " standards " of the commodities and services priced. Specifications include the unit of quantity to be priced, the grade, quality, size, style, etc., and in some cases the particular brand and the manufacturer's " line " number. The standards selected are those with a considerable volume of sales and likely to remain representative over a long period.

The items and standards priced are revised from time to time to keep them in harmony with changing conditions. Before each quarterly collection the standards of all items are reviewed after extensive inquiries among manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers. Where changes in the items or standards priced become necessary, suitable adjustments are made in compiling price series to ensure that they reflect only changes in prices for representative goods of constant quality and not differences in prices of differing standards.

The actual collection of information is carried out by specially qualified field officers of the Commonwealth Bureau of Census and Statistics, who not only receive and check returns but visit the shops or other establishments concerned.

RETAIL PRICE INDEX NUMBERS

The collected information relating to prices of goods and services may be summarised in the form of index numbers. Prices of items, selected as being representative of a high proportion of the expenditure of wage-earner households, are combined at regular intervals by the use of " weights " in approximate proportion to quantities actually used. The aim is to express as a single number the degree of change in prices for the selected field taken as a whole. In practice the application of this principle over a term of years presents great difficulty by reason of the numerous changes which occur in the type, grade and relative quantities of many of the items commonly used.

Basically, in the simplest method of compiling retail price indexes the price of each item is multiplied by a fixed quantity or " weight," the product being an " expenditure." The sum of these products for all items at any given date represents an " aggregate expenditure." The " aggregate expenditures " for successive periods are converted into an index series by equating the aggregate for a selected or " base " period to 100 (or some other convenient number), and calculating all index numbers to this base according to the ratio which the several aggregates bear to that of the base period.

The " A " Series Index was first compiled in 1912 and although it was both rudimentary and of limited scope, covering only food, groceries and house rents, it was not discontinued until 1938. The " C " Series Index was first compiled in 1921, and retrospectively to 1914, to supply the need for a more adequate index. It was originally described as the " All Items " Index, to distinguish it from the " A " Series, because it included, in addition to food, groceries and house rents, many items of clothing, household drapery and utensils, fuel, lighting, fares, smoking and some other miscellaneous items.

The list of component items and the weighting pattern of the "C" Series Retail Price Index, first adopted in 1921, were slightly revised by Conference of Statisticians in 1936, but otherwise remained almost unchanged until the index was discontinued in 1960. From the outbreak of war in 1939 to late in 1948, periodic policy changes in regard to various war-time controls, including rationing, caused recurrent changes in consumption and in the pattern of expenditure. This rendered changes in the index desirable but made it impracticable either to produce a new index, or to revise the old one, on any basis that would render the index more representative than it already was of the changing pattern in those years.

When commodity rationing had virtually ceased in the latter part of 1948, action was taken by the Commonwealth Statistician to collect price data of about 100 additional items and to gather information as to current consumption and expenditure patterns. This was done to facilitate review of the component items and weighting system of the "C" Series Retail Price Index, in the light of the new pattern of wage-earner expenditure and consumption that appeared to be then emerging. However, there supervened, in the next few years, conditions which caused wide price dispersion coupled with a very rapid rise in prices and a new sequence of changes in consumption and the pattern of wage-earner expenditure. Under these conditions it was not possible to devise any new weighting pattern likely to be more continuously representative of conditions then current than was the existing "C" Series Index on the 1936 revision. A Conference of Statisticians considered the matter in June 1953, and resolved, in part, as follows:

"(a) That, in view of the persistence of recurrent changes in the pattern of consumer expenditure in the post-war period, it is undesirable to make a general revision of the list of items and weighting system of the "C" Series Retail Price Index at present, unless industrial tribunals expressly desire some revision for special purposes.

(b) That an Interim Retail Price Index be compiled with putative weights and components representative, as nearly as may be, of the post-war pattern of consumer usage and expenditure."

The "C" Series Index continued to be compiled on its pre-war basis without significant change in procedures. The Interim Retail Price Index, with the year 1952–53 as its base, was introduced in 1954 and continued until the March quarter of 1960. This Interim Index was a transitional index designed to measure retail price variations on the "C" Series model in terms of post-war consumption weights, as emerging in the early 1950's. It embraced a wider range of commodities and services than did the "C" Series Index, but it did not take into account successive major changes in the pattern of expenditure and modes of living that began to occur early in 1950 and through to 1960. These changes could not, in fact, be detected and measured promptly, and incorporated into an index, concurrently with their happening in those years. Nor was it envisaged as desirable to adopt fundamentally new procedures in price index construction until it was fully evident that far-reaching procedural changes were necessary to meet the situation that had developed between about 1950 and 1960.

During this period home-owning largely replaced the renting of privately-owned houses, the numbers of government-owned rented houses increased appreciably, the use of the motor car greatly increased and partly replaced use of public transport, various items of electrical household equipment and television came into widespread use, household consumption of electricity greatly increased, and technological developments such as the introduction of new synthetic materials produced a number of changes in clothing and other groups of items. Through the impact of these continuing changes in usage, combined with disparate movements in prices, the Interim Retail Price Index became outmoded. As studies progressed and new data became available, it was clear that no single list of items and no single set of fixed weights would be adequately representative as a basis for measuring retail price changes at all times throughout the post-war period. In consequence, the situation was met by compiling the Consumer Price Index constructed as a chain of linked indexes with significant changes in composition and weighting effected at short intervals.

THE CONSUMER PRICE INDEX

The Consumer Price Index was first compiled in 1960, retrospectively to the September quarter of 1948. It replaced both the "C" Series Retail Price Index and the Interim Retail Price Index in official statistical publications. The title "Consumer Price Index" is used for purposes of convenience and does not imply that the new index differs in definition or purpose from previous retail price indexes. The Index is designed to measure quarterly variations in retail prices of goods and services representing a high proportion of the expenditure of wage-earner households. The weighting pattern relates to estimated aggregates of wage-earner household expenditure and not to estimated expenditures of an "average" or individual household of specified size, type, or mode of living. It is thus possible to give appropriate representation to owner-occupied houses as well as rented houses and to include motor cars, television sets, and other major expenditures which relate to some households and not to others.

Investigations revealed that the incidence and frequency of changes in the pattern of household expenditure since 1950 were such as to render it necessary to construct the index with additional items and changes in weighting patterns at intervals, rather than on the basis of a list of items and set of weights which remained unchanged throughout the period. Five series for short periods (September quarter, 1948 to June quarter, 1952; June quarter, 1952 to June quarter, 1956; June quarter, 1956 to March quarter, 1960; March quarter, 1960 to December quarter, 1963; and from December quarter, 1963) have therefore been constructed and linked to form a continuous series.

At times of linking the weighting pattern was altered and, in addition, new items (mainly those that had become significant in household expenditure) were introduced. In each period between links the items and weighting have remained unchanged.

The Consumer Price Index covers a wide range of commodities and services arranged in the five major groups, Food ; Clothing and Drapery ; Housing ; Household Supplies and Equipment ; and Miscellaneous. It is designed only to measure the proportionate change in prices as combined in the individual groups, or the aggregate of the groups in the index. This is a basic principle of all price indexes, and failure to appreciate it gives rise to misconceptions concerning price indexes and their uses. Consumer (retail) price indexes are sometimes loosely called " cost of living indexes " and are thought to measure changes in the " cost of living." Neither the Consumer Price Index, nor any other retail price index, measures those changes in the cost of living that result directly from changes in the mode or level of living. Changes of that kind are matters for consideration apart from price indexes. But the change in prices of goods and services is a very important part of the change in any cost of living and this part is measured by consumer (retail) price indexes.

The following summary gives a general description of the nature of the items included in the several groups which together comprise the Consumer Price Index.

Food—Meat (fresh and processed) ; dairy produce : cereal products ; soft drink, ice cream and confectionery ; potatoes, onions and preserved fruit and vegetables ; and other foods including sugar, jam, margarine, tea, coffee, baby foods, and sundry canned and other foods.

Clothing and Drapery—Men's, women's, boys' and girls' clothing ; men's, women's and children's footwear ; household drapery ; and piecegoods and knitting wool.

Housing—Costs (house price, rates, repairs and maintenance) involved in home ownership or purchase by instalments ; and rent paid to a private owner or government authority.

Household Supplies and Equipment—Household appliances ; fuel and light ; and household articles including furniture (from December quarter, 1963), floor coverings, kitchen and other utensils, gardening and small tools, household sundries, personal requisites, proprietary medicines and school requisites.

Miscellaneous—Transport (train, tram and bus fares and private motoring costs) ; beer ; tobacco and cigarettes ; services such as hairdressing, dry cleaning, shoe repairs and postal and telephone services ; and other expenditure including costs of radio and television operation, cinema admission and newspapers.

These groups do not include every item of household spending. It is both impracticable and unnecessary for them to do so. Prices are collected regularly for specified quantities and qualities of a large and representative selection of commodities and services. Movements in the prices of these items, when combined in suitable proportions, provide a representative measure of price change as affecting a high proportion of the expenditure of wage-earner households.

The sets of weights used have been derived from analyses of statistics of production and consumption, the Population Censuses of 1947, 1954 and 1961, the Censuses of Retail Establishments of 1948–49, 1952–53, 1956–57 and 1961–62 and the continuing Survey of Retail Establishments ; from information supplied by manufacturing, commercial, and other relevant sources ; and from special surveys. As from the December quarter, 1963 the weights, in general, are based on the pattern of consumption of the years 1957–58 to 1961–62.

The index has been compiled for each quarter from the September quarter of 1948, and for each financial year from 1948–49. (Comprehensive series of Consumer Price Index numbers ab initio are given in Tables 1 to 7 of Part XII of the Statistical Register for 1959–60). " All Groups " index numbers, and group index numbers for each of the five major groups, are compiled and published regularly for the six State capital cities separately and combined. The reference base for each of these indexes is : Year 1952–53 = 100·0. Figures appearing after the decimal point possess little significance for general statistical purposes. They are inserted merely to avoid the minor distortions that would occur in rounding off the figures to the nearest whole number.

The separate city indexes measure price movements within each city individually. They enable comparisons to be drawn between cities as to differences in the degree of price movement, but not as to differences in the actual price level since the index for each city is independently based, on the prices recorded in that city during 1952–53. Similarly, the separate group indexes measure price movements of each group individually. They enable comparisons to be drawn as to differences in the degree of price change in the different groups, but do not show the comparative cost of the different groups.

The index for the six capital cities combined is a weighted average of price movement in the individual cities. The relative influence of the several cities on the combined index is determined by their populations at the 1954 Census for periods to the December quarter, 1963. From the link made as at the December quarter, 1963 the weights of the individual cities have been revised on the basis of the results of the 1961 Census.

The foregoing summary of the main features of the Consumer Price Index has been prepared from publications issued by the Commonwealth Statistician, Canberra, among them being the Labour Report, 1964 —No. 51, which contains a detailed description of the Index.

SECTION 3—EMPLOYMENT

NOTE—In addition to the employment data appearing in this Part, details of the numbers of persons engaged in particular activities are given elsewhere in the Statistical Register. Part IV, for example, shows the numbers employed in railway operations, road passenger transport and ferry services and post, telegraph and telephone services. Part V gives details of employment on rural holdings and in fishing and pearling ; Part VI, in factories ; Part VII, in mining and quarrying ; Part IX, in hospitals and infant health services ; and Part X, in educational institutions.

INDUSTRY OF THE POPULATION

The Census

The most detailed and comprehensive statistics of employment of the population are those which are derived from the periodic Population Census. The population of Western Australia, as enumerated at the Census of 30 June 1961, is classified according to industry in Tables 10, 11 and 13, and according to occupational status in Tables 12 and 13.

For statistical purposes, industry may be defined as any single branch of productive activity, trade or service. It is concerned with the activities of persons, firms or businesses considered as a group producing the same commodity, performing the same process or providing the same service. All persons engaged in any such branch of economic activity are classified industrially as belonging to that particular branch irrespective of their personal occupation within the industry. Examples are : Mining, which includes, in addition to miners and prospectors, such persons as laboratory technicians, transport workers and office staff employed by mining companies ; Shipping, which covers staff members of shipping companies and agencies, as well as ships' crews ; professional activities such as Medicine, Law and Architecture which include not only qualified practitioners but also persons employed by them as, for example, receptionists, law clerks and draftsmen.

It should be noted that the particulars shown under Public Authority Activities (N.E.I.) are residual figures comprising those persons in the administrative sphere of general government, local government and foreign consular services who have not been classified elsewhere. They do not, therefore, represent the total numbers of persons engaged in or attached to all fields of government service, Commonwealth, State or Local. For example, employees of the Railways Commission have been assigned, in accordance with evidence contained in their census schedules, to Railway workshops in the sub-group Manufacture, Assembly and Repair of Ships, Vehicles, Parts and Accessories ; to Motor bus services in the sub-group Road Transport ; to Construction and maintenance of permanent way in the sub-group Construction Works and Maintenance (other than Buildings) or to Rail services under Rail and Air Transport. Further examples of this allocation of government workers to industries other than Public Authority Activities (N.E.I.) are provided by Departments such as Education, Public Works, Postmaster-General's, Repatriation, and local government authorities.

For more comprehensive and detailed data relating to the industry and occupational status of the population of Western Australia, the reader is referred to Census of the Commonwealth of Australia 30 June 1954, Volume V—Western Australia : Detailed Tables, and the corresponding volume for the 1961 Census, published by the Commonwealth Statistician, Canberra.

Estimates of Employment

In addition to employment data provided by the census, there are available monthly estimates of the number of wage and salary earners in civilian employment, excluding employees in rural industry (comprising agriculture, grazing and dairying) and private domestic service. The prime purpose of this series is to measure, as nearly as possible with available data, current monthly trends in employment in the defined field.

Estimates for months prior to June 1954 are not available on a basis comparable with that used for June 1954 and later. The statistics are based on comprehensive " benchmark " data derived for the purpose from the Population Censuses of June 1954 and June 1961. Figures for periods between and subsequent to the two benchmark points in time are estimates obtained from three main sources, (i) Pay-roll Tax Returns, which are lodged by all employers paying more than $400 per week in wages, other than those specifically exempted under the Pay-roll Tax Assessment Act 1941–1966, (ii) returns from government bodies, and (iii) some other direct current records of employment, e.g., for hospitals. The data thus derived are supplemented by estimates of the changes in number of wage and salary earners not covered by these collections. As they become available, particulars of employment obtained from other collections, notably the annual factory census and the censuses and sample surveys of retail establishments are used to check and, where desirable, to revise estimates in relevant sections. The figures shown for Manufacturing have been revised from July 1964 in accordance with the results of the factory census of 1963–64 and 1964–65.

The estimated monthly figures are derived mainly from reports supplied by employers on an enterprise or establishment basis. The benchmark figures are derived from personal particulars supplied by individual respondents on population census schedules. However, the industry dissections of census information have been adjusted, as nearly as may be, to an " enterprise/establishment " reporting basis. The industry classification used is that of the Population Census of June 1961.

The estimates relate to wage and salary earners on pay-rolls or in employment in the latter part of each month, as distinct from numbers of employees actually working on a specific date. Some persons working part-time are included.

Employees in rural industry and in private domestic service are not included in the estimates because the available data are inadequate.

Employees of government and semi-government authorities are included in the figures shown in Tables 15 and 16. Estimates of the numbers employed by Commonwealth, State and Local Government authorities are available separately and are published in Table 17.

All estimates have been rounded to thousands (correct to the first place of decimals) without adjustment to totals. For this reason, figures do not in all cases add to the totals shown.

OCCUPATIONS OF THE POPULATION

Occupation is defined as the nature of the work which a person performs, and implies personal performance. It may be based on the material treated, the process carried out or the type of service rendered by an individual worker. Thus the occupation of a person is the kind of work that he or she personally performs, as distinct from industry, which is defined as any single branch of productive activity, trade or service and is not concerned with the nature of personal performance.

In Table 14 the population of Western Australia at the Census of 30 June 1961 is classified according to occupation.

The Classification of Occupations used in the tabulation of the 1961 Census data has been adapted from and closely adheres to the principles embodied in the International Standard Classification of Occupations issued by the International Labour Office, Geneva, 1958. The International Standard Classification of Occupations was prepared after extensive discussions and research by world experts in this field, to provide an adequate classification framework for countries interested in occupational classification, and, at the same time, provide a basis for international comparison of occupational data obtained mainly from Censuses of Population.

The Australian Classification of Occupations contains 12 Major Groups, 73 Minor Groups and 348 Occupation Categories. In accordance with the International Standard Classification, occupations have been grouped by the general similarity of the characteristics of the work they entail. The most important feature of each minor group is that the occupations included are more closely related to each other than to occupations outside the minor group as regards the functions involved and the skills, knowledge and abilities required for satisfactory performance. Other factors taken into consideration in forming these groups have been material worked on, workplace environment, use of specialised equipment, etc.

The data appearing in Table 14 are restricted to the 12 Major Groups and the 73 Minor Groups of the Australian Classification of Occupations. Detailed particulars of the numbers in each of the 348 Occupation Categories are given in Census of the Commonwealth, 30 June 1961—Census Bulletin No. 32 ; Occupations of the Population : Australia, States and Territories published by the Commonwealth Statistician, Canberra.

For the groups Finance and Property ; Public Authority (N.E.I.) and Defence Services ; and Community and Business Services (including Professional) the figures derived from the 1954 classification have been adjusted to accord with the classification used in 1961.

BUILDING STATISTICS

In this issue of Part XII of the Statistical Register of Western Australia several tables dealing with building operations are included for the first time. Some of these tables contain particulars dating back to 1945–46, the first year for which such statistics were compiled. Others relate to shorter periods, but in every case the series shown is the longest for which data are available. The tables have been extracted, in the main, from Building and Construction, 1964–65 : Bulletin No. 1, published 1967 by the Commonwealth Statistician, Canberra, to which reference should be made for additional information concerning building activity in Western Australia and for comprehensive data relating to other States and Territories and Australia as a whole.

The Commonwealth Bureau of Census and Statistics, Canberra publishes current building statistics in the monthly statement Building Approvals and the Quarterly Bulletin of Building Statistics and, in summary form, in the Monthly Review of Business Statistics, the Quarterly Summary of Australian Statistics and the monthly Digest of Current Economic Statistics. The Western Australian Office of the Bureau publishes similar information for Western Australia in the monthly release Building Permits and Approvals, the quarterly statement Building Operations, the Monthly Statistical Summary and the Quarterly Statistical Abstract.

SCOPE OF THE STATISTICS

The survey of building operations, which is conducted quarterly, covers the activities of building contractors who undertake the construction of new buildings ; the building operations of Commonwealth, State, semi-government and local government authorities ; and work performed by " owner-builders " (see definition Owner-built below). Minor alterations and/or additions, private outbuildings (garages, carports, etc.), repairs and renovations, and temporary buildings are excluded.

In general, building operations may be undertaken only after the issue of a permit by the local government authority concerned. There are, however, areas in some Shires where this condition does not apply. In these " non-permit " areas the activities of owner-builders are generally not recorded, and some contract building operations may also be excluded. While it is possible that such omissions may have some significance in a particular local government area, it is considered that, in most cases, they do not materially affect the statistics.

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND DEFINITIONS

Building Permits and Approvals—Statistics of building permits and approvals are compiled from :

(a) building permits issued by local government authorities to private persons and firms for operations in areas subject to building control by these authorities, and

(b) information from a number of sources on contracts let, work commenced or work authorised by government, semi-government and local government authorities.

Private or Government Ownership—A building is classified as " private " or " government " according to ownership at date of commencement. Thus " government " includes buildings erected for Commonwealth and State Governments, semi-government and local government authorities, either by contractors or by day labour, whether these buildings are for their own use or for rental or sale after completion. Houses erected for particular persons under government-sponsored building schemes or with government financial assistance are classified as " private ".

Alterations and Additions—Prior to 1 July 1966, additions valued at $10,000 or more to buildings other than houses were classified as " new " buildings. From 1 July 1966, alterations and/or additions valued at $10,000 or more to existing buildings of all types have been included as " new " buildings.

Houses and Flats—The numbers shown relate to individual houses and flats constructed as separate living units. Temporary dwellings, sheds, huts, etc., are excluded. Figures for flats include " home units ". They do not include flat dwelling units which result from the conversion of existing buildings into flats. Dwellings attached to other new buildings are not included in the numbers shown, but their value is included with that of the buildings to which they are attached.

Commenced—A building is regarded as having been commenced when work on foundations has begun. Owing to the difficulty of defining the exact point that this represents in building operations, classifications made by informants may not be entirely uniform. A building is reported once only as having been commenced, whether or not work has actually proceeded at all times during its construction.

Completed—A building is regarded as having been completed when the building contractor has fulfilled the terms of the contract or, in the case of owner-built houses, when the house is either completed, or substantially completed and occupied. The value shown is that of the house as a finished project. As with commencements, the classifications made by informants may not be entirely uniform.

Under Construction—A building is regarded as being under construction if it has been commenced but not completed, whether or not work on the building is actively proceeding. Buildings on which work has been permanently abandoned are excluded.

Owner-built—An owner-built house is one actually erected or being erected by the owner or under the owner's direction without the services of a contractor responsible for the whole job.

Contract-built—Includes the operations of all building contractors and government authorities who undertake the erection of new buildings.

Values—Values shown exclude the value of land and represent the estimated value of buildings on completion.

Value of Work Done—The values shown in Table 39 represent the estimated value of work actually carried out on buildings during each year. For any building, the sum of these values obtained during its construction equals the value of the building on completion. Data relating to the value of work done on owner-built houses (see definition Owner-built above) are not collected. However, the figures shown for the value of work done include a component relating to owner-built houses, calculated on the basis of the figures collected for the value of such houses, commenced, completed, and under construction.

Type of Building—A building is classified according to the function which it is intended to serve. A building which is ancillary to other buildings or forms part of a group of related buildings is classified according to the major function of the group as a whole. Examples of the types of individual buildings included under each main functional heading are shown below.

Hotels, hostels, etc., includes motels, boarding houses and guest-houses.

Shops includes cafes, restaurants, retail markets and showrooms.

Office premises includes banks, insurance offices, government offices, municipal chambers and post offices.

Other business premises includes railway station buildings, bus depots, service stations, telephone exchanges, broadcasting and television stations and studios, and warehouses.

Education includes schools, colleges, kindergartens, reference libraries and university buildings.

Religion includes churches, church halls, convents, seminaries and theological colleges.

Health includes ambulance stations, infant health centres, convalescent homes, hospitals, nurses' quarters and sanatoria.

Miscellaneous includes museums, art galleries, homes for the aged, benevolent homes, orphanages, defence buildings, law courts, police stations and reformatories.

Persons Working on Buildings—The figures appearing in Table 40 relate to persons working on the jobs of contractors who undertake the erection of new buildings and of government authorities which erect new buildings on their own account. They include persons actually engaged on alterations, additions, repairs and maintenance when these jobs are undertaken by such contractors and authorities.

The figures shown for employment as at 30 June 1961 and earlier exclude persons engaged on buildings, other than houses, which were being erected without the services of a contractor responsible for the whole job. The figures shown for 1962 and later include such persons. Figures for all years exclude those working on owner-built houses. Employees of builders who undertake only alterations, additions, repairs and maintenance are also excluded.

Informants are asked to give details of all persons working on their jobs on a specified day, including working principals, men working as or for sub-contractors, and men temporarily laid off on account of weather. Because of the intermittent employment of various types of sub-contractors on any particular job, it is sometimes difficult for informants to provide precise particulars of the number of sub-contractors and the number of employees of sub-contractors working on their jobs on the specified day. This factor may cause some understatement in the figures shown. In other cases, because of frequent movement between jobs of some types of tradesmen, such as electricians, who may work on several jobs on the one day, some duplication may occur.

Perth Statistical Division—The Perth Statistical Division was constituted with effect from 1 January 1966. It compromises the area formed by amalgamation of the former Metropolitan and Swan Statistical Divisions. The component local government areas are as shown in Table 30.

Local Government Areas—Local government areas in Western Australia are designated Cities, Towns and Shires. In all tables where a dissection according to local government area appears, Cities are marked (C) and Towns (T). The names and designations shown in the tables are those which were current at 30 June 1966.

Particulars of the numbers of houses completed in individual local government areas are available from 1947–48. A table showing completions in each year from 1947–48 to 1954–55 appears on pages 35–7 of Part XII of the Statistical Register of Western Australia for 1954–55. Completions in later years are shown in the corresponding table in succeeding issues.

Statistics of flats completed in local government areas are available from 1954-55 and are given in Table 35 for each year up to 1962–63.

The numbers of houses and flats completed in each local government area in the years 1963–64, 1964–65 and 1965–66 are shown in Table 36.

SUMMARY OF DWELLINGS—CENSUSES OF 1954 AND 1961

NOTE—The following definitions are relevant when considering the figures given in Tables 42–54.

Occupied Dwelling : An occupied dwelling is any habitation occupied by a household group living together as a domestic unit, whether comprising the whole or only part of a building. The term has therefore a very wide reference and includes, in addition to houses and flats, a great variety of "dwellings" ranging from a single-room shack to a multi-roomed hotel or institution. Occupied dwellings are classified into "private" and "other than private" dwellings.

Private Dwelling : Private dwellings are further classified into the following four categories—

Private House : Private Houses include houses, sheds, huts, garages, etc., used for dwelling purposes, and shared private houses for which only one Householder's Schedule was received.

Share of Private House : A Share of a Private House is a portion of a shared private house which is occupied separately and for which portion a separate Householder's Schedule was furnished.

Flat : A Flat is part of a house or other building which can be completely closed off and which has its own cooking and bathing facilities.

Other Private Dwelling : These include private dwellings such as rooms, apartments, etc., which are parts of buildings but are not self-contained units.

Other than Private Dwelling : These include Hotels ; Motels ; Boarding Houses, Lodging Houses and Hostels ; Educational, Religious and Charitable Institutions ; Hospitals ; Defence and Penal Establishments ; Police and Fire Stations ; Clubs ; Staff Barracks and Quarters, etc.

Divisions of State :

Metropolitan Urban comprises the Metropolitan Statistical Division (see Map of Western Australia in Part V of the Statistical Register).

Other Urban comprises all towns outside the Metropolitan Statistical Division with a population of more than 1,000 persons (excluding full-blood Aborigines) at the Census.

Rural relates to all other parts of the State.

RETAIL SALES STATISTICS

In the tables in this section, the particulars shown relate to sales of goods (as distinct from services, accommodation, entertainments, meals, etc.) by establishments which normally sell goods by retail to the general public from shops, rooms, kiosks and yards.

The data given in Tables 58–62 for the years 1956–57 and 1961–62 were obtained from Censuses taken in respect of those years, and have been abstracted from Census of Retail Establishments and Other Services : Year ended 30 June 1962 ; Bulletin No. 6—Western Australia, published by the Commonwealth Statistician. For complete details of the tabulations and a comprehensive description of Census concepts and procedures, the reader is referred to this Bulletin, which is one of a series dealing separately with each of the Australian States and Territories. The information appearing in Table 56 is extracted from a quarterly statistical statement Retail Sales of Goods. which is issued by the Commonwealth Statistician and contains similar information for each of the Australian States. The figures are estimates derived from a sample survey of retail establishments conducted each quarter by the Commonwealth Bureau of Census and Statistics and are on a basis comparable with the 1961–62 Census of Retail Establishments.

Scope of Retail Census

In general, establishments with retail sales of goods amounting to less than $1,000 in the Census year are not included in the Census tabulations.

In addition to retail shops, as generally understood, the Census includes the retail activities of the following :

Licensed hotels, motels, wine saloons and refreshment rooms ; unlicensed hotels and motels which have dining rooms open to the public

Bakeries, whether sales are made from retail premises or from a vehicle (provided that sales from vehicles are made on the baker's own behalf)

Tailors (except tailors who only make up customers' materials)

Garages and service stations, motor vehicle retailers, used-car lots

Gas and electricity suppliers (in respect only of their retail sales of appliances)

Fuel and ice merchants with retail premises

The following establishments are excluded ; unless they make sales by retail to the general public from fixed premises :

Opticians and optometrists

Laundries and dry cleaners (included in a supplementary collection)

Theatres (motion picture theatres were included in a supplementary collection)

Timber yards and joinery works

Brick works

Roofing tile works

Establishments providing trade services such as carpentry, electrical contracting, plumbing, upholstery, panelbeating and motor body building, monumental masonry, etc.

Real estate agencies, stock and station agencies

Newspaper publishers and printers

Photographic studios

Dressmakers

Establishments catering for special occasions (races, sports meetings, etc.)

Herbalists

Lending libraries

Market or flower gardens, nurseries, dairies, poultry farms, chick hatcheries, which sell direct (either on site or from delivery vehicles) and which do not conduct a shop or regular roadside stall, also are excluded.

Organisations such as clubs and societies making sales to their own members are excluded from the main Census collection, but a supplementary collection was made, covering sales by licensed clubs.

The design of the Census is such that particulars of retail sales relate principally to sales, to the final consumer, of new and second-hand goods generally used for household and personal purposes. For this reason, sales of building materials ; farm and industrial machinery and equipment ; earth-moving equipment, etc., have been excluded from the Census. For the same reason, and also because of difficulties in obtaining reliable and complete reporting, sales of builders' hardware and supplies ; business machines and equipment ; grain, feed, fertilisers and agricultural supplies ; and tractors were excluded from the 1961–62 Census. The 1956–57 Census particulars as published in Tables 58–60 have been revised to exclude sales of these commodities. At both Censuses, retail sales of motor vehicles, parts, etc., were included whether for industrial, commercial, farm or private use.

Where sales of goods other than new motor vehicles are made on commission, the basis of collection is for sales to be included in the principal's returns and not in those of the agents. In the 1956–57 Census, this practice was also adopted for sales of new motor vehicles. However, in that Census difficulties were experienced in ensuring that some sales of new motor vehicles were not reported twice (i.e., by both the principal and the agent). Another effect of the 1956–57 procedure was that sales of new motor vehicles made on a commission basis through country agents were generally shown in statistics for the Metropolitan Statistical Division, where the businesses of the principals are mainly located, and this tended to present an unrealistic pattern of the area distribution of total new motor vehicles sales. Because of these factors, it was decided that, for the 1961–62 Census, sales of new motor vehicles should be included on the return of the establishment which made the sale to the final consumer, irrespective of whether the sales were made by a commission agent or by a principal. It has not been practicable to revise the 1956–57 figures to take account of the changed collection arrangements.

There are certain types of establishments (e.g., licensed clubs and canteens) which, although they make sales to consumers, are excluded, by definition, from the Census. For this reason, the aggregates shown for some commodity groups are less than the total value of goods in those groups actually sold to consumers. This applies in particular to tobacco, cigars, cigarettes, beer, wines and spirits. Sales of cigarettes are made also by means of vending machines operated by independent organisations.

Type of Business

All establishments were classified according to Type of Business. For the purposes of such classification, reference was made to the type of goods sold or service rendered as indicated by the commodity sales and other takings recorded on the Census returns. In general, establishments were coded to the Type of Business which corresponded to their predominant " type " of goods sold or service rendered (i.e., the " type " with the largest sales or takings).

The basis of coding establishments to Type of Business was broadly the same in the two Censuses. However, there are some establishments whose returns in the two Censuses showed relatively small differences in the distribution of sales between commodity groups, and which are coded to different Types of Business in the respective Censuses. For example, an establishment whose 1956–57 Census return indicated that Electrical Goods was the predominant "type " of goods sold, with Clothing and Drapery as the " type " with the next largest sales would have been coded as an Electrical Goods Store in the 1956–57 Census. If a slight change occurred between the two Censuses, with the result that the same establishment's 1961–62 Census return indicated that Clothing and Drapery was the predominant " type " of goods sold, the establishment would be coded as Clothier and Draper in the 1961–62 Census (unless the establishment satisfied the definition for Department Store).

In the 1961–62 Census, a separate Type of Business classification was provided for Department Stores. In the 1956–57 Census, such establishments were originally coded to the type of business appropriate to the distribution of sales by commodity groups. However, the 1956–57 figures have been revised to a basis consistent with that used in 1961–62, and consequently comparisons are not affected.

Statistical Retail Areas

In general, Statistical Retail Areas comprise groups of contiguous local government areas (i.e., Cities, Towns and Shires). For the 1956–57 Census the local government area boundaries were those existing as at 1 January 1957 and for the 1961–62 Census, as at 1 January 1962. Although some boundary changes took place between these dates they were such as not to invalidate intercensal comparisons of data relating to Statistical Retail Areas or Statistical Divisions.

Names of Local Government Areas included in each Statistical Retail Area and Statistical Division are shown in Table 60.

Persons Working on Retail Activities

Traders were asked to supply details of the number of persons working at the establishment on the last pay-day in June 1962. The figures include persons normally working at the establishment who were absent on account of sickness or were on holiday. Traders were asked to provide separate details of persons working mainly on retail activities and others working mainly on wholesaling, manufacturing, etc. For this purpose, retail activities were to include retail selling (including bar trade), repair work, hairdressing, preparation and serving of meals, accommodation, retail packing and delivery services, retail supervisory, clerical and accounts staff, etc. Only details of persons working mainly on retail activities are shown in Table 62. In the case of chain stores and other organisations operating several retail establishments, special inquiries were made to obtain details of persons working on activities associated with retail selling but located at premises other than retail establishments (e.g., central warehouses, offices not located at retail establishments, etc.). These details have been included in the return for the largest retail establishment operated by each organisation.

ROUNDING OF FIGURES

Many of the figures appearing in the tables have been rounded to thousands without making those adjustments which would be needed to make the rounded figures add to the rounded total. It is for this reason that figures do not always add to the totals shown in the tables.

(a) From 1915, year ended 30th June. (b) Excluding plywood and veneers and small quantities of timber for which no super. footage is recorded. For the years 1906 to 1921, figures are approximate. (c) Figures for the years 1949–50 to 1951–52 represent oversea exports only and exclude small consignments to other Australian States. Those for 1952–53 to 1959–60 include small consignments of cooked whole crayfish to other Australian States. (d) A major oil refinery began production in 1954–55. In some earlier years there were small consignments of re-exported products which were of little significance and are not shown. (e) Less than $500. (f) Six months ended 30th June. (g) Precise information not available, but it is known that the value of exports was about $500,000. (h) Figure for 1956–57 excludes, and that for 1957–58 includes, an amount of $22,012 representing the value of cattle hides exported during 1956–57 but not recorded until 1957–58. (i) Not available.

(a) Figures generally are for the season or financial period ending in the following year. (b) Represents the estimated value of recorded production based on wholesale prices realized at the principal market. (c) In addition, the following amounts were paid as interim distribution of profits under the 1939–1945 War-time Wool Disposals Plan : in 1949, $3,629,478 ; in 1951, $3,629,478 ; in 1952, $2,325,324 ; in 1953, $368,104 ; in 1954, $2,120,460 ; and in 1955, $1,797,090. Separate State figures are not available for distributions made from 1956 to 1958 when payments were virtually complete. (d) For primary production, net value of production is derived by deducting from the gross value all marketing costs and the cost of certain goods (seed, fertilizer, pickling, sprays, dips, fodder, fuel and oil, etc.) used in the processes of production. For manufacturing, net value of production is the value added in the course of manufacture. It is obtained by deducting from the selling value " at the factory " the cost of materials used, fuel, power and light, lubricating oil and water, repairs to plant and buildings, tools replaced, and containers and materials used for packing. (e) Not available. (f) Eighteen months ended 30th June, 1926. (g) See note (f). * Revised.

(a) See Special Note below. (b) In the period from December, 1950 to June, 1967 the female basic wage was fixed at 75 per cent. of the male rate ; previously it had ranged from 54 per cent. up to 75 per cent. of the male rate. (c) The rates shown for 1964 and later apply uniformly throughout the State. (d) The first State basic wage operated from 1st July, 1926.

Special Note—The latest wage rates shown in the " State " section of this table are those which applied before a decision of The Western Australian Industrial Commission dated 27th June, 1967. The terms of this decision were that the minimum weekly wage payable to adult male workers under certain awards be increased from $36.55 to $37.55 ; " that the wage rates for adult workers not in receipt of the ' minimum wage ' be increased by 60 cents per week ; and that other wage rates be adjusted as if the basic wage for males and the basic wage for females had been increased by that amount". These increases were declared to operate from the beginning of the first pay-period commencing on or after 1st July, 1967. The latest wage rates shown in the " Commonwealth " section of the table applied before a decision of the Commonwealth Conciliation and Arbitration Commission in June, 1967 to eliminate basic wages and margins from its awards and to introduce total wages to operate from the beginning of the first pay-period commencing on or after 1st July, 1967. Total wages for adult males and adult females were increased by $1 a week from the same date.
